Woodsong Forest School Parent Agreement Form

Please read the following agreement and initial the following items:

_____ I am aware that Forest School is nature-based, and children will be outside in all weather conditions, except severe (we will usually follow Bradley County school weather closings, and additionally, Woodsong School teachers may cancel school due to other severe weather conditions.) I am committed to providing my child appropriate clothing for the weather conditions.

_____ I understand that Forest School is NOT appropriate for children who do not follow instructions. Children will also be allowed an unusually wide range of physical experiences including going to the bathroom outside.

_____ I understand that the admissions process includes a school tour for parents and children to attend together to determine if Woodsong Forest School is a good fit for everyone before final enrollment forms are signed.

_____ I understand that this application is NOT a contract, and I will expect to hear from the Director within one week of receiving this application to register my family for a school tour. And if all spaces are full, my child will be placed on a waiting list.

Signature(s) of parents _____ Date _____
